The clerk gave those present a summary of the Parish Councils finances for the year end 31st March 2025.

7. County Councilor's Report

Former KCC Cllr Tony Hills sent a report for the previous year summarising his work at the County Council.

8. District Councilor's Report

Cllr Martin F&HDC provided a written report summarising last year.

9. Questions and Comments from the Floor

An issue with Highways England was discussed when problems were caused by the installation of a rumble strip on the A259 when the road was resurfaced in 2024. No further action is required.

A Parishioner reported that Highways England have been conducting a feasibility study on the A259 and a proposal for a one-way system from the Brookland roundabout to Rye that would impact the village by using the old road as part of a one-way system. The Parish Council agreed to follow up on the status of the feasibility study and any proposed work on the A259 by Highways England.
